

PUBLIC NOTICE - BOARD APPOINTMENTS

OUTGOING CHAIRMAN

The Deposit Protection Corporation (DPC) Board announces the departure of Mr. Agmos Moyo, who has completed his tenure as Chairman after eight years of exceptional service. Since joining the Board in 2016, Mr. Moyo has provided exemplary leadership, driving key initiatives such as DPC's ISO certification and the relocation to the Borrowdale Office. His visionary guidance has strengthened DPC's role in the financial sector and fostered a culture of excellence. The Board and the DPC team express profound gratitude for his dedication and wish him continued success.

INCOMING CHAIRMAN

The DPC Board is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Canaan F. Dube as Chairman, effective 1 November 2024. A seasoned lawyer and corporate leader, Mr. Dube brings a wealth of experience, including roles as Senior Partner at Dube, Manikai & Hwacha and Chairman of Hippo Valley Estates Ltd. His impressive academic credentials and ongoing PhD studies in Corporate Governance underscores his commitment to excellence. This appointment aligns with governance best practices, and the Board looks forward to his leadership.

MRS. JUDITH RUSIKE

The DPC Board announces the departure of Mrs. Judith Rusike, who has concluded her eight-year tenure as a Non-Executive Director. Her leadership across key committees has been instrumental in DPC's growth and governance. The Board extends its heartfelt appreciation for her dedicated service and wishes her success in future endeavors.

MS. MELULEKI SIBANDA

The DPC Board welcomes Ms. Meluleki Sibanda as a Non-Executive Director, effective 1 November 2024. With a Bachelor of Laws Honours Degree from the University of Fort Hare and her role as Deputy Director of Legal Services in the Ministry of Finance, her regulatory expertise will strengthen DPC's mission. The Board looks forward to her valuable contributions.
