

PUBLIC NOTICE

CANCELLATION OF MEMBERSHIP IN THE DEPOSIT PROTECTION SCHEME: FBC BUILDING SOCIETY.

1. The Deposit Protection Corporation (DPC) wishes to inform the public, that in terms of the Deposit Protection Corporation Act [Chapter 24:29], FBC Building Society ceased to be a member of the Deposit Protection Scheme following the cancellation of its operating license with effect from 30 December 2025 by the Registrar of Building Societies, pursuant to an approved merger involving FBC Holdings Limited, FBC Bank Limited and FBC Building Society.
2. At the time of license cancellation, FBC Building Society had transferred all deposit liabilities and related banking assets to FBC Bank Limited, a registered banking institution and a member of the Deposit Protection Scheme. Consequently:
  - a) Deposits previously held with FBC Building Society continue to be protected under the Deposit Protection Corporation Act [Chapter 24:29] through FBC Bank Limited; and
  - b) No compensation is payable under the DPC Act, as FBC Building Society did not become insolvent.
3. Members of the public are advised that FBC Building Society no longer conducts deposit-taking business with effect from 30 December 2025.
4. The DPC remains committed to safeguarding depositors' funds, promoting confidence in the financial system, and supporting orderly restructuring processes within the banking sector.
5. Depositors may continue to access their accounts and banking services through FBC Bank Limited in the normal manner.
6. For further enquiries, depositors may contact the DPC through the following channels:
